

NJHSA October Executive Conference | November 3 – 5, 2018 | Arizona Biltmore

Agenda

Friday, November 2

Mystery Room, Main Building

7:30 pm -9:00 pm                      Optional Shabbat Dinner

Saturday, November 3

Wrigley Lawn

7:30 pm -10:00 pm                      Enjoy an Arizona evening while dining with your colleagues at the Biltmore

Sunday, November 4

Aztec Room / Patio, Main Building

8:00 am - 8:30 am                      Continental breakfast at the Biltmore

8:30 am- 12:00 pm                      The State of the Human Service Sector

Presenters:     Susan Dreyfus, President & CEO, Alliance for Strong Families and Communities
                         John MacIntosh, Partner, SeaChange Capital Partners

Uncover the key findings of the 2018 groundbreaking Report of the Alliance for Strong Families and Communities and the American Public Human Services Association; A National Imperative: Joining Forces to Strengthen Human Services in America. Engage with Susan Dreyfus and John MacIntosh who will guide us in a discussion as we identify the implications of this Report for the Jewish human service sector. This session will also introduce the driving concepts of Collective Impact and Sustainability which are major forces influencing outcomes for our Sector.

12:00 pm - 2:00 pm                      Lunch on your own
   Hotel options include:                      The Café
   Frank & Alberts Restaurant
   Cabana Club at the Paradise Pool

2:00 pm - 4:00 pm                      Connecting the Report to our Jewish Human Service Sector:
   A Panel Perspective Representing Key Stakeholders

Engage in a dialogue with partners in the human service sector and with your Network colleagues on the development of concrete strategies to address the findings of the National Imperative Report. Beginning with an interactive panel of Network and other sector respondents and culminating in meaningful dialogue with leadership from peer agencies, you will leave this session ready to lead change at home.

Featured Panelists:     Joy Goldstein, Associate Vice President, Planning and Research, JFNA
   Michael Marcus, Principal, Consultants for Community Resources
   Herb Paine, President, Paine Consulting Services
   Leslie Reis, Senior Manager, Workforce Initiatives, CVS Health

4:00 pm Adjourn for the day - Dinner on your own or join a Group Dinner

Monday, November 5

Aztec Room / Patio, Main Building

8:00 am - 8:30 am Continental breakfast at the Biltmore

8:30 am - 11:30 am Developing a Personalized Toolkit

Building on the insights of day one, this session provides the time and structure needed to engage in constructive planning and facilitated design thinking while also leaving you with a toolkit of resources you can draw on as you seek to impact the Jewish human service sector at home.

Facilitators: John Colborn, COO, JEVS Human Services, Philadelphia
Jenni Frumer, President, Jenni Frumer & Associates, LLC

Presenter: Jay Spector, President & CEO, JEVS Human Services, Philadelphia

11:30 am Conference Adjournment

Rimrock Room, Conference Center

12:00 pm - 4:00 pm NJHSA Board of Directors Business Lunch Meeting

7:00 pm Optional Dinner Offsite (restaurant to be determined)

MANY THANKS TO THE EXECUTIVE CONFERENCE PLANNING COMMITTEE

Jordan Golin, JFCS Pittsburgh, Chair
Heidi Brown, JFCS of the Suncoast, Sarasota
John Colborn, JEVS Human Services, Philadelphia
Kim Coulter, JVS Toronto
Jenni Frumer, West Palm Beach, FL

Lea Luger, Yad Ezra, Michigan
Erin Minior, JFS of Rhone Island
Karen Mozenter, JFS Columbus
Judy Tiell, JFCS Louisville

SPECIAL THANKS TO OUR CONFERENCE SPONSORS

MUTUAL OF AMERICA
Your Retirement Company®

