

PROGRAM DEVELOPMENT & BEST PRACTICES

On the Go	Understand elements of a successful specialized transportation program, including tips on developing a collaborative community transportation service.
Engaging Community	Learn how to further engage your community including strategies for successful collaborations.
Increased Efficiencies Through Shared Resources	Explore a model where three social service agencies have come together to share a space and deliver on a shared vision of a healthy and strong community by offering services that are open, inclusive, multilingual and caring all
Client Engagement Models	Learn about models for more inclusive programming while helping individuals with disabilities in your community feel a greater sense of self-worth and community responsibility, empowering them to take an active leadership role
Inclusion: Beyond the Gender Binary & Feminine Norms	Reflect upon gender's role in society and the workplace with practical, concrete strategies that service organizations can implement to insure that their communities are warm, welcoming, and inclusive of all individuals, regardless of gender identity and sexual orientation. And, explore how feminine norms impact Jewish girls what
Grandparents, Families, & Jewish Life Today	Discuss a ground-breaking national study of Jewish grandparents to collect reliable, quantifiable data about this important target group – their attitudes, beliefs, behaviors, needs and family demographics. This session will provide a first glimpse of the findings from the national study and an opportunity to explore the implications of
Response to Suicide	Position your agency to respond proactively to high risk clients, understand the value of integrated service delivery systems within agency structures, and identify program opportunities that reduce stigma of accessing services.
Holocaust to Human Trafficking & Ensuring Dignity	Learn to support the Holocaust survivor community and improve services provided to trauma survivors including ways to effectively work in a person-centered, trauma-informed method across programs in an organization.
Older Adult Wellness, One Front Door, Integrated Care	Explore a collaboration for a bridge to care and wellness for older adults & family caregivers
Relational Cultural Theory	Learn the importance of connection in fostering growth, change and effectiveness using relational cultural theory.
Strategic Decision Making	Learn the value and limitations of the program portfolio analysis to inform strategic direction and budgeting, focus and align services. and maximize agency impact as you gain an understanding of key criteria that can be used
Maximum Impact	Explore common strategies applied to disparate populations with different employment barriers through targeted training, career counseling, employment counseling, highly specific outreach and marketing tactics which
New American Network	Learn ways to seek, apply for, and secure WIOA (Workforce Opportunity Investment Act) funding opportunities and how to utilize those funds to increase job skills through training programs, connecting refugees and asylees with