

Jewish Family Service of St. Paul

Chief Executive Officer

Jewish Family Service of St. Paul is seeking a new Chief Executive Officer to lead the highly dedicated, multi-faceted and dynamic organization. For over a century, the JFSSP has been a lifeline to people in need. The not for profit agency offers programs to individuals and families to assist them in obtaining the skills and resources they need to meet life's challenges with dignity.

The CEO will report to the Board of Directors and act as the main spokesperson for Jewish Family Service St. Paul, representing the organization to its varied partnerships and stakeholders in the Twin Cities Community. The CEO provides strategic, visionary and inspirational agency leadership by directing all service programs and general operations and takes responsibility for consistent achievement of its mission and financial objectives.

The ideal candidate will be a facilitative, collaborative leader who can reflect passion for the agency's mission. The ability to build community connections and partnerships is vital. Prior experience managing a social service organization with an annual budget of 3 million dollars is preferred but not required.

Position requirements:

- Bachelor's degree required; advanced degree preferred
- 10+ years in not for profit sector preferably within human service field or related experience
- Passion for Jewish Family Service of St. Paul's mission
- Ability to build relationships internally and in the community
- Strategic thinking ability
- Demonstrated track record of team building and holding staff accountable for results
- Experience and comfort working with an involved, invested Board of Directors

Qualified candidates may submit a resume and cover letter to Roger Kramer, Chair of Search Committee at rkramer@kramerlitigation.com. No telephone inquiries please.
