For some of us, the Jewish faith is a constant source of support. Many others turn to Judaism when they seek comfort and solace, and, sometimes when they are faced with life's toughest questions. The Jewish Health and Healing Center of JFS of Greenwich embraces these needs as part of the essential quest for strength, faith, meaning and reconciliation.

The Center was created to offer support, counseling, and education to members of the community who face physical, emotional or spiritual challenges. Looking through the lens of Jewish wisdom and tradition, the Center offers a variety of services and programs to reduce isolation and promote a sense of connectedness. Our programs are led by social workers, doctors, nurses, and spiritual leaders. Some services will sustain members of the community who are facing bereavement, loss, or illness. Others will promote activities and kinship for people seeking to strengthen and enrich their lives. Still others will extend comfort and a helping hand to those in need.
