Advancing ESOL Delivery

JVS Boston developed and implemented an innovative way of delivering and measuring adult education classes that moves English Language learners into the labor market.

	GOAL	MODEL	WORKFORCE ENGAGEMENT	EMPLOYER PARTNERS	EVALUATION
TRADITIONAL ESOL	Move to next English level	One (1) service to increase English skills	Limited connection to workforce development	No connection with local employers	Increase in English level
ENGLISH FOR ADVANCEMENT	Move into employment	Two (2) services to increase English skills & prepare for work	Embedded in workforce development framework	Collaboration with local employers	Wage gains

Upcoming Webinar: Wednesday, July 7, 2020 – 1pm ET

PRESENTATION OF AWARDS

Extraordinary Leadership

Michael Hopkins

President & CEO

Jewish Family Service of San Diego

Michael has led JFS through a collaborative strategic planning process, an $11M capital campaign resulting in a new client-centric campus and is currently engaged in a $50M endowment campaign. Under Michael's leadership, JFS earned Charity Navigator's highest 4-star rating for the 12th year, an achievement of just 1% of nonprofits.

Michael joined JFS in 2012, continuing his 35+ years of strengthening communities across the country. Prior to JFS, Michael served as ED of Nehirim, national Jewish LGBT organization, and CEO JCC MetroWest NJ, one of the largest JCCs in the country.

Throughout his career, Michael has focused on the needs of those in our community that are often left out or left behind...often it's our youth, the elderly, the homeless and most recently immigrants.

Michael has a MSW from the Yeshiva University. He is a Board Member of the NJHSA and of the Regional Task Force, which addresses homelessness in San Diego.
