Duties and Responsibilities

JFCS is seeking a Business Advisor who will provide business development assistance and marketing training to aspiring entrepreneurs in targeted population groups to start, grow and expand their business ventures. Primary focus will be to provide support services and strengthen skill sets through individual and group assistance with business plans, marketing strategies, industry research, financial forecasting, and operational planning. The Business Advisor will serve on the JFCS Navigate team and will report to the Director of JFCS Navigate.

The Business Advisor will manage clients/entrepreneurs to become ready for business financing through preparation of micro-lending applications and business modeling approaches. Through these program and training initiatives, the Business Advisor will cultivate long-term relationships with the new entrepreneurs. The Business Advisor will develop business training programs, including classes and workshops for small business owners to help guide their pathway to economic self-sufficiency. As part of the JFCS Navigate team, the Business Advisor will help create and maintain external relationships with partner organizations and community leaders through outreach activities and support services provided.

Qualifications, Competencies and Characteristics
