

May and June Events

May 5 @ 12:00 pm - 1:00 pm (ET)

Protecting Privacy While Providing Help: New Considerations for Community-Based Organizations

Community-based organizations routinely provide vital services and supports to improve the social determinants of health for children, youth, and adults. Key to this service delivery are the social referrals, which are often related to highly confidential matters such as substance abuse disorders or domestic violence. This webinar will feature a panel of experts from findhelp and The Stephen Group that will discuss the various consent models as well as larger issues related to open and closed networks. The panel will also discuss the concerns surrounding access to confidential personal referral information and current legislative efforts around the country to address privacy in social care.

Cost: Free

May 10 @ 3:00 pm - 3:30 pm (ET)

Introduction to COA Accreditation

This webinar will provide an introduction to Social Current and COA Accreditation. Participants will gain an understanding of the key concepts that define COA Accreditation, the steps toward becoming accredited, and the benefits of accreditation.

Cost: Free

May 12 @ 3:30 pm - 4:30 pm (ET)

Information Session: Equity Learning Collaborative

Join this information session to learn more about Social Current's learning collaborative on equity, diversity, and inclusion (EDI). In this virtual open house, you'll be able to connect with facilitators and have all your questions answered.

Cost: Free

May 16 @ 8:00 am - May 20 @ 5:00 pm (ET)

2022 Executive Leadership Institute

Loyola University Chicago Quinlan School of Business 820 N. Michigan Ave., Chicago, IL
The Executive Leadership Institute (ELI) equips senior-level managers and executives with the knowledge and skills to oversee day-to-day operations and prepare for the future and greater systems change. For this upcoming May 2022 session, Social Current will partner with Loyola University Chicago's Quinlan School of Business, accessing first-class faculty and specialized expertise, as well as the flexibility to create a program to transform students' leadership skills.

Cost: $4250 – $5250

May 17 @ 1:00 pm (ET)

Back to Basics: Nonprofit Finance 101

New to the nonprofit world, or just want a refresher on best practices? We're going back to the basics! Please join Gregg Indicator of Your Part-Time Controller, LLC (YPTC) for an overview of the basic financial statement terminology, reporting, and governance best practices that all nonprofit leaders should know.

Cost: Free

May 20 @ 2:00 pm - 2:45 pm (ET)

Maximize Your Social Current Engagement: Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion

It is clear that advancing equity, diversity, and inclusion is important for the social sector. However, it can be difficult to know where to start. Social Current's approach to EDI positions organizations for success by focusing on organizational culture and addressing equity at multiple levels. Join this session to learn more about Social Current's approach to EDI, which is based on years of experience in partnering with community-based organizations. Participant will also gain tips for how to be successful in advancing equity at your organization.

Cost: Free

May 23 @ 1:00 pm - 4:00 pm (ET)

Diverse SOGIE Training Series: SOGIE 101

This training introduces participants to a social identity framework focused on sexual orientation, gender identity, and gender expression (SOGIE). In addition to learning about SOGIE in the context of social identities, participants will also review best practices to enhance interpersonal and professional relationships with clients and peers who identify as LGBTQ+ or have diverse/expansive SOGIE.

Cost: $115

May 24 @ 1:00 pm - 4:00 pm (ET)

Diverse SOGIE Training Series: Data Collection: How to Ask About SOGIE In Systems of Care

Increasingly federal and state systems of care are requiring SOGIE data collection, and many agencies are not prepared. Additionally, the absence of SOGIE visibility can be a barrier for referrals to agencies who are equipped to serve LGBTQ+ people. This training focuses on how LGBTQ+ identity can impact the way people prioritize voice and choice in service delivery.

Cost: $115

May 25 @ 1:00 pm - 4:00 pm (ET)

Diverse SOGIE Training Series: Family Support with LGBTQ Children

This training introduces participants to the Family Acceptance Project's research, which highlights the correlation between caregiver behaviors toward LGBT youth and future health and safety outcomes. Additionally, participants will learn about family preservation and the Ruth Ellis Center's approach to working with families of LGBTQ+ youth.

Cost: $115

May 26 @ 1:00 pm - 4:00 pm (ET)

Diverse SOGIE Training Series: Gender-Affirming Care

This training provides an overview of gender-affirming care and transitioning (socially, medically, and legally). These practices serve to increase safety, access to resources, and mental/emotional well-being for gender diverse people. Whether a medical professional or someone who is interested in advocating for the LGBTQ+ community, participants will leave with concrete behaviors which can be implemented in a variety of roles when serving individuals with diverse gender identity and expression.

Cost: $115

June 9 @ 12:00 pm - 4:00 pm (ET)

Advancing EDI for a More Perfect Union (June Session)

June Session: June 9, 16, 23

During this three-part virtual workshop, participants will explore their relationships with equity, diversity, and inclusion (EDI) in a safe environment and make progress on developing an EDI action plan for their organizations.

Cost: $650

June 14 @ 11:30 am - 12:15 pm (ET)

Maximize Your Social Current Engagement: Learning and Professional Development

Today, Social Current is providing a robust set of learning solutions to support community-based organizations, from individual professional development opportunities to enterprise learning solutions. Our offerings are aligned in key areas for advancing the impact of the social sector, and our professional development opportunities include webinars, on-demand courses, workshops, and in-person learning cohorts. Join this session to learn how you can support your staff's continuous learning and professional development through Social Current—our online learning catalog contains more than 100 courses in a variety of formats.

Cost: Free

June 27 @ 1:30 pm - 4:30 pm (ET)

Intensive Accreditation Training (IAT)

The Intensive Accreditation Training (IAT) is designed to prepare organizations to get the most out of their COA Accreditation experience. It provides an overview of the COA Accreditation process and standards, tips on how to manage the work, and advice for preparing for the site visit.

Cost: $400